

If the icons are missing on your remote apps website

This is a problem with Internet Explorer version 10 and can be easily fixed.

Click the compatibility view button. The icon looks like a broken document.

The icons will reappear and should be there the next time you open the page.

